

PREPARING FOR YOUR BRIGHT FUTURE

A SYMPOSIUM FOR YOUNG WOMEN IN HAWAII

As young women nearing high school graduation across Hawaii look towards their bright futures, they now have more educational and career choices than ever before. To help in the planning process, please join us for a very informative symposium. Hear about scholarships, internships, and career opportunities with the Central Intelligence Agency. In addition, participate in roundtable career discussions with local professionals in various fields. For more information, email us at naaaphawaii@gmail.com. This event is free but seating is limited, so RSVP via Eventbrite today!
